

ST. MALACHY CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Academic Integrity Contract

The primary purpose of St. Malachy Catholic School is walking our mission, Learning, Loving and Living with Christ. As such, the principles of academic integrity – honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility - are vital to its success. Activities or intentions that interfere with these principles are strictly prohibited.

St. Malachy's Acceptable Internet Use Policy

Inappropriate (non-educational) use of the online course environment may result in removal from the Remote Learning and/or other disciplinary action. This includes email, chat, discussion forums, and all other components of Remote Learning. Tools provided to students by St. Malachy Catholic School are only to be used as they contribute to completing assignments during Remote Learning. All tools are for "Educational Use Only!" All teacher instruction that is recorded is school property; therefore, it cannot be shared.

Code of Conduct

You, your teacher, and other staff members at St. Malachy Catholic School are all expected to conduct yourselves with the same level of respect, professionalism, and courtesy as you would in a classroom environment. Any and all communication that is conducted via the phone, e-mail, discussions, or chat room must be done in an appropriate manner and tone.

Cheating & Plagiarism

The temptation to cheat while participating in Remote Learning may be especially great; after all, a teacher isn't there to watch you while you complete your work. Be fair to yourself and other students by avoiding the temptation and doing your own work. We fully expect you to complete all work honestly. Honesty is always the best policy! Cheating involves submitting work in a written assignment or assessment that is not your own. Cheating includes:

- Copying someone else's work.
- Allowing someone else to copy your work.
- Having someone else complete your work for you.
- Using unauthorized material to help you complete your work.

Plagiarism is a type of cheating in that you are stealing someone else's work and presenting it as your own. If you use the ideas, words, or statements of another person or source to support your ideas, you must always give credit to the person or source.

Any incidents of cheating or plagiarism will follow our policy stated in our Student Handbook.
